

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS CONTINUITY:

The Bible is a collection of 66 books.

The Bible was written over a 1500 year span by over 40 authors from every walk of life.

The Bible was written in three continents: Africa, Asia, and Europe.

The Old Testament was written in Hebrew with small parts in Aramaic.

The New Testament was written in Greek.

The authors of the Bible spoke on many controversial subjects. Yet these many different authors writing in different locations, at different times, in different languages agree on controversial subjects.

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS CIRCULATION:

The Bible has more circulation, is read by more people, and has more copies than any other book in history by far.

The Bible has sold more than any other book and is a best seller every year.

The United Bible Societies has distributed over 500 million copies and portions of the Bible in one year.

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS TRANSLATION:

The Bible was the first major book translated in ancient history. The Septuagint was the Old Testament translated from Hebrew to Greek before 200 BC.

The Bible has been translated into more languages than any other book. The United Bible Societies says the Bible has been translated into over 2,000 languages.

Most inventions in literature have to do with the Bible. For example the Bible was the first book put into codex form and the Bible was the first major book printed in history around 1450.

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS SURVIVAL:

Until about 1450 all books had to be copied by hand.

The Bible has more manuscript evidence than any ten pieces of classical literature combined.

The New Testament has over 5,000 existing Greek manuscripts in whole or in part. The Iliad, which is in second, has a little over 600 existing manuscripts.

Many of the historical descriptions in the Bible have been verified by modern archaeology.

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS INFLUENCE ON SURROUNDING LITERATURE:

More books such as commentaries, dictionaries, etc., have been written for and about the Bible than any other book.

THE BIBLE IS UNIQUE IN ITS TEACHINGS:

There are over 300 prophecies of Jesus Christ in the Old Testament which were fulfilled in the New Testament.

THE BIBLE STANDS ALONE AMONG ALL LITERATURE AND SHOULD BE READ BY ALL PEOPLE WHO ARE SEARCHING FOR TRUTH!
